DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This end-block, two story stucco residence is crowned by a steeply pitched roof. A significant feature of the house is the large verandah, which extends around the left facade. Stripped, cloth awnings shade the interior space.

Four flagstone steps lead to the right entrance, a wooden door. To the right are 2 rectangular windows with 6/6 lights and louvered shutters. The left end facade also holds 2 windows in the 1st floor.

Four identical windows fill the second floor. A right offset brick chimney rises above the roofline in the 2nd story of the left facade, interrupting the 2nd and 3rd windows. The gable holds 2 narrow rectangular windows with sills. Both the porch and primary roofs are shingled.

Significant This simple stucco frame house is typical of early 20th century domestic architecture.
